City Gets $10,000 Aid

The Texas Aeronautics Commission has approved a $10,000 state grant to aid in construction of a new Cameron airport, according to Shelby Kritser, TAC Chairman.

In a meeting of the Cameron City Council Tuesday, the Council authorized City Engineer J. B. Earle to go to work on the airport site. Preliminary work includes clearing and grading and will be done by the city street department.

Approval of the loan followed a meeting of the Cameron delegation with the TAC last Thursday in Austin. The grant is subject to the FAA Loan and the project must be undertaken before Sept. 30.

7 GET GRANTS

Chairman Kritser said six more towns had received these state grants to aid in the construction or improvement of urgently needed community airports. They are Hearne, $2,000; Jacksboro, $10,000; Kountze, $7,500; Clarksville $12,000; Floydada, $12,000 and Post, $12,000.

Implement Firm

Builds New Plant

North Of City

Construction is underway on a new all-steel plant to house the Duncum Implement Company of Cameron.

The business house is being erected north of Cameron on US Highway 77.

Owner Coleman Duncum said the business will sit on six acres of highway front and will provide the business with additional space. He said the space is needed in order to operate the business more efficiently and for future expansion.

Duncum Implement, now located at 105 E. Gillis, is a John Deere dealer concern and has been in operation in Cameron since 1935. Duncum purchased the business in 1960.

Workers from the American Steel Company of Houston are erecting the walls of the structure this week. The concrete foundation and steel framing went up last week. Date of completion has not yet been determined.

The all-steel, insulated building has 7,200 square feet of floor space. The interior will have three areas, a parts department and show room, offices and service department. All areas, with the exception of the service department, will be air-conditioned and have central heat.

The six acre building site will provide adequate space for displaying new and used equipment in separate areas. There will be an outdoor and indoor show room.

Minute Vote Goes Against Proposal

Milam County voters, in the slimmest state-wide vote in recent history, Tuesday voted 316-325 against increasing Texas Senate seats from 31 to 39.

Cameron voters went: Pct. 1-14 for, 25 against; and Pct. 2-58 for, 23 against. Rockdale voted: Pct. 15-34 for, 25 against and Pct. 16-22 for and 19 against.

Voters were indifferent to the issue as only one-sixth the number went to the polls that voted in the August bond issue, which was about half of the 6,000 which vote in presidential elections.

Buckholts went 12-5 for the issue, Thorndale 17-40 against, Milano 14-12 for and Sharp 10-15 against.

Pep Squad Formed For Ada Henderson

A Pep Squad was formed for Ada Henderson School and officers elected Friday. Margaret Perkins was elected president; Donna Tindall, vice president; Cynthia Krieg, secretary.

The Pep Squad will support cheerleaders Susan Brown, Gail Jeter, Jinny Jeter, Renee Kirk and head cheerleader, Rebecca Burnett.

This group of communities now being offered state grants is the second to be announced following a series of public hearings.

Additional hearings will be conducted as new applications are received from Texas communities, Kritser noted. Communities interested in participating in this program have until October 31, 1965—the deadline date for acceptance of new applications.

Cameron city officials requested the TAC to match local funds of $15,000 for the airport construction. The airport project had already received federal aid approval in the amount of $30,000.

CITY NEEDS

Mayor Bassel Wilson, aided by councilman Bob Wells, presented facts on Cameron concerning financial needs, business and industrial needs, local matching funds, and federal grant approval for the construction of a new airport.

State Rep. Milton Schiller's bill, which was passed by the 59th Legislature and approved by Governor John Connally, authorizes the State Aeronautics Commission to loan funds to small towns and cities under 25,000 population for airport construction.

The proposed airport plans include the purchase of needed land to extend the runway, paving and lighting, windcone, taxi-ways from the runway to the hangar, turn-arounds at each end of the runway and in front of the hangar. Final master plans have been sent to the TAC, Mayor Wilson said.

AIRPORT SITE

Cameron now has 53.2 acres of land at the airport site located north of Cameron with 29.8 acres designated for the airport and 23.48 acres available for industrial growth.

The city must have an additional 10.4 acres of land directly north of the present airport site for the recommended runway length. They have an option for the land and are now in the process of getting the air easement needed.

At present the Cameron airport has only a hangar building and small administration building with no runway or lighting facilities.

Texas Outlook Has Article On School Funds By Harbour

ROGERS

The September, 1965 issue of "The Texas Outlook," official publication of the Texas State Teachers Association, carries a story by Supt. B. F. Harbour of the Rogers Public Schools, titled: "Save Money with Government Surplus Goods."

In the story, Harbour points out the types of goods available from Government Surplus and how to obtain them. Rogers has obtained more than $70,000 worth of school equipment and supplies in recent years, including about $14,500 in office and classroom furniture, supplies and equipment; $7,200 in shop materials; some $25,000 in motor vehicles and accessories.

Harbour says free lance writing, when he can find a little time, is one of his hobbies. He has had some ten to twelve stories published in various magazines in recent years. He is also the Rogers correspondent for The Cameron Herald.

IF THAT DOWNTOWN CAMERON BLOCK WERE A MALL-PARKING AREA

This artist's concept visualizes what downtown Cameron might be if the block, discussed in the June 8 Town Meeting, were replaced with a grass mall and offstreet parking. The drawing shows one possibility for a broader downtown square and additional parking. You are generally looking west at Houston Avenue, which runs north and south. Here, the possibility of offstreet parking and a wider street area for other downtown activities is visualized. And the grassed area, with walkways and the idea of a center fountain, gives continuity to the present grassed area, statue and Milam Courthouse in the courthouse square. Artist is Pete Tumlinson, of Cameron. The block is now bounded by Houston, First, Main and Central Ave.

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

How Do You Rate As A Teacher?

By Jane Sherrod Singer

It has generally been acknowledged that teaching is one of the most subtle arts because it is involved with dealing with the intangible mind and soul. It is not, nor cannot be, an exact science, yet research and observation give us some clues as to the characteristics of a good teacher. How would you answer the following questions?

- | | YES | NO |
|--|-----|-----|
| 1. Are you prone to lecture to your classes telling them what is right and what is wrong? | () | () |
| 2. Do you maintain high standards of dress and conduct for yourself? | () | () |
| 3. Do you enjoy teaching? | () | () |
| 4. Are you well-prepared for each class session? (Materials as well as your command of subject matter) | () | () |
| 5. Have you devised ways of making your students want to learn? | () | () |
| 6. Do you know your students physically, mentally and spiritually? | () | () |
| 7. If you cannot answer a question, do you try to bluff your way out of the situation? | () | () |
| 8. Do you encourage each child to compete with himself rather than with others? | () | () |
| 9. Do you avoid putting a child or children in embarrassing situations? | () | () |
| 10. Are your lessons primarily concerned with teaching facts? | () | () |

DESIRABLE ANSWERS:

- NO "Telling is not teaching." The truth must be arrived at by the learner through the guidance of the teacher.
- YES: "Whatever you would have your children become, strive to exhibit in your own lives and conversations." (Lydia Sigourney)
- YES: It is seldom that we do well what we dislike. If you do not enjoy teaching, try to make your contribution to society in another field of endeavor.
- YES: "The secret of successful teaching is to teach accurately, thoroughly and earnestly; this will impart interest to instructions and awaken attention to them." (C. Simmons)
- YES: "Do not train young people to learn by force and harshness; but direct them to it by what bemuses their minds, so that you may be better able to discover with accuracy the particular bent of the genius of each." (Plato) "To awaken interest and kindle enthusiasm is the sure way to teach easily and successfully." (Tyron Edwards)
- YES: "Be understood in thy teaching, and instruct to the measure of capacity. Precepts and rules are repulsive to a child, but happy illustration wins him." (Tupper)
- NO: A popular preacher once said, of his pulpit efforts: "I always roar when I have nothing to say." The statement, "I do not know, but let's find out together, works like a charm."
- YES: When a student himself wishes to improve, half the battle of learning is accomplished.
- YES: The use of sarcasm and ridicule are the lowest form of discipline and should NEVER be employed.
- NO: "The aim of education should be to convert the mind into a living fountain, and not a reservoir." (John Mason)

Bulldogs To Host

Elgin Eagles Sat.

The O. J. Thomas Bulldogs will raise the curtains on the 1965-66 football season Saturday Sept. 11. The season opener against the always tough Elgin Eagles should be quite a test for the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs have looked very good in early season workouts and seem determined to go all the way this year. Coach Edward Aycox said.

The Bulldogs lost seven seasoned linemen along with two experienced backs from last years team but replacements are looking good. "Over all the Bulldogs are bigger, stronger, are more experienced than we were a year ago. Our greatest problem at the moment is defensive depth," the coach added.

Leading the Bulldogs again this year at Quarterback will be Frederick Kelley who will be shooting for his 4th letter this year. Kelley was vited All District Defensive Quarterback last season.

Two other three year veterans Leonard Knight All District Halfback and M. G. Young at fullback will give the Bulldogs one of the most experienced backfields in the district. Larry Ray a returning letterman, L. S. Stephens, Alvin Stephens, Curtis Rose, Hubert Candy and Rogers Pettay will round out the backfield for the Bulldogs.

Cameron Hosts Marlin In Cen-Tex Battle

Highlights Grid Action Friday

The Cameron Yoemen will host a tauted Marlin Bulldog squad Friday night at Yoe Field in a game that highlights Cen-Tex grid action. Game time is 8 p.m.

Marlin of 12-AA and Cameron of 17-AA are both eyeing upper berths in state this year. The Bulldogs have again been picked to win their district and are figured as a contender for the state finals.

Last year they fell to Palacios in the state-finals, after an early season loss to Cameron.

The Yoemen have been picked by the Texas Football Magazine as district 17-AA kings again this year and are ranked 10th in the state. District coaches forecast a two-team title for the District 17AA league title between Cameron and Hearne.

With one win to their credit, the Yoemen will be testing their strength against a team which last week fell to 3-A Gatesville 14-6. Cameron gained a stout win over Rosebud 34-0 last Friday. Rosebud, of 22-AA, went to the semifinals last year and is picked again this year for top honors in their class.

Although Marlin returns 13 lettermen off last year's squad, Coach Jim Holland has only two returning offensive starters. But he will be able to fill in with senior lettermen and will have only one sophomore on the starting lineup.

Quarterback Jim Rogers (163) and tackle Joe Black (175) are two-year lettermen who will play a big part in the Bulldog's bid for the 12-AA title.

Larry Lawless (165) halfback, who provided most of the offensive fireworks last season, is known for his speed and has been an all-district choice two years and was chosen one of the top 100 backs in the United States.

Eddie Chalmers rates as one of two top linemen in their district and is the largest player tipping the scales at 240. The only sophomore on the starting roster is end John Rogers (175).

Coach George Kirk has 15 returning lettermen flanked by two "M's", quarterback Mack McKinney and fullback Mike "Bull" McDaniel. Both were all-district offensive choices last season while McKinney also took all-league laurels at defensive safety.

Two more "M's" in the backfield are veteran halfback Don Manley and Doug McFarland, who has been switched from end to halfback this season. James Hoskins is filling the other halfback slot.

YOEMEN BLAST ROSEBUD 43-0

By L. E. Sapp

The Cameron Yoemen blasted away at the Rosebud Black Panthers Friday night to win their season opener 34-0.

With the lopsided score, an easy victory might be indicated, but the Rosebud Panthers were far from easy when they hosted their long-time Central Texas rivals.

Power met with power during the first half, but the Panthers lacked the needed strength in reserve that gave Cameron that extra push.

Cameron's quarterback Mack McKinney and fullback Mike "Bull" McDaniel, backed by a power-touted offense provided that extra punch and running ability to put the Yoemen up front.

In the first quarter, the Panthers and Yoemen gained little leeway against the other with the Yoemen fumbling on the Rosebud 31 and the Panthers returning the favor on the Yoe 36.

YOE SCORE

Taking advantage of the Rosebud fumble, McKinney, 175 pound senior, put the first six points on the board dashing 45 yards around left end. After a good fake to fullback McDaniel, McKinney

The other starter is lineman James Hosch. Kirk and his assistants Ken Fuqua, Wilson Elliott and John Wilkins, are building around these five returnees and ten lettermen.

Probably the biggest problem the Yoemen face is a lack of size, especially in the line, but the overall team speed is better than last year and may offset the deficit.

McDaniel, (194) is the heaviest of the squad while Hosch (187) is the heaviest lineman.

The Yoemen are able to field one of the strongest backfields in the district with the four starters and reserves Glenn Fogle, Don Mitchell, Jack McKinney, Forrest Green, Bill Goeke, Leo Michalka, Wayne Kirk and McFarland who are fighting for starting positions.

In the line will be lettermen Newton Burnett, end; Joe Paul Mueck, and Frankie Mikulec, guards; tackle James Hosch, and up from the B-team, end Eugene Zalesky, tackle David Kratochvil, center Larry Shuffield or Steve Smith.

slipped away from fullback Joe Marek and lost his last Rosebud defender, end Gary Plasek, at the 20. With 9:55 left in the second quarter, the Yoemen scored their first TD. The extra point attempted failed because of a high snap from center.

A pass interception set up the second Yoe touchdown when McKinney picked off a Plasek aerial at midfield and returned to the Panther 19.

Five plays later, with 19 seconds left in the first half, McDaniel surged off right tackle for six more points.

Fullback Jack McKinney, brother to Mack, booted the first of four straight conversions, making the halftime score 13-0.

OUTMANNED PANTHERS

With the two touchdowns lead, the Yoemen outmanned the Black Panthers during the second half of the game. Displaying the same drive and determination, they pushed across three more second half tallies.

Cameron took the second half kickoff and their own fumble aided them in their first scoring drive. Halfback Bill Goeke dropped back to pass on a fourth down play, fumbled the ball, recovered it and ran for a first down on the Rosebud 40.

McKinney capped the drive when he went around right end from five yards out for the tally widening the margin 20-0.

Another McKinney interception indirectly set up the fourth Yoe touchdown. He returned it 17 yards to the Panther 13 where the Rosebud squad took over on downs on their own nine.

But the Panthers were plagued with another fumble with Doug McFarland, defensive halfback, recovering for the Yoemen.

HOSKINS ADDS TD'S

From the one yard line, James Hoskins, halfback, blasted across the goal line bringing the score to 27-0 with 1:02 left in the third period.

Hoskins scored again when he picked up a fumbled punt and sped 65 yards for a TD.

Cameron reserves threatened late in the game but that ended in a blocked attempted field goal.

Mack McKinney led Cameron's ground attack with 98 yards on 10 carries. McDaniel added another 74 yards on 19 carries.

Fullback Joe Marek was top ground gainer for the Rosebud squad driving 72 yards on 19 trips.

Cameron had a heavy statistical advantage with 18 first downs for 294 yards total offense compared to 6 first downs and 119 total yards for the Panthers.

Outstanding defense players on the Panther squad were Marek, Larry Koslosky, Eddie Malcik and Mike Hoelscher.

Aiding the Yoemen defense were McKinney and McDaniel, Wayne Kirk, McFarland, Ray Urban, Joe Paul Mueck and James Hosch.

Rogers Eagles Host Rosebud Friday

The Rogers Eagles will host the Rosebud Black Panthers Friday night with both teams looking for their first win of the season.

Last Friday the Eagles fell at the hands of Reicher (of Waco) 20-6. Rosebud was downed by the Cameron Yoemen 34-0.

Game time will be at 8 p.m. at Rogers Field.

In Friday's action, Rogers scored their lone tally late in the fourth quarter when quarterback Dave Sebek passed four yards to end Ray Schwertner for the touchdown. The play, coming with 7 seconds remaining in the game, ended an 80-yard drive for the Eagles.

Reicher scored in the first half when John Tusa connected with Ken Keeton on a 20-yard touchdown passing. In the second quarter Sammy Fuentes ran 29 yards off tackle ending a 52-yard TD drive. Don Biender kicked the extra point for the first and third TDs. Fuentes later covered another five yards for Reicher's final touchdown.

Rogers coach Donald Godwin said the Eagles did a good job in their game against Reicher and hustled well, but need lots of work on blocking.

Doyle Harris looked good at defensive linebacker and Mike and Jimmy Mayfield at fullback and tailback, the coach said.

Friday's starting lineup will see Sebek, 143, at quarterback, Clayton Waits, 132, at wingback, Mike Mayfield, 163, fullback, Jimmy Mayfield, 158, tailback, Donald Kotrla, 152, center, Bill Sparks, 136, guard, Doyle Harris, 182, guard, Jim Richardson, 166, and Richard Green, 182, tackles, Ray Schwertner, 175, and Ray Sulak, 168, at end.

Fall, Winter Pasture Needs

By J. D. Moore

Winter temporary pastures are the only dependable source of green grazing in the late fall, winter and early spring. Green grazing permits beef gains and increased milk production during the winter and reduces hay, grain and veterinary bills, according to R. J. Mears and Ben Spears, extension pasture specialist and agronomist.

ESTABLISHMENT - Proper seedbed preparation and fertilization are essential for successful temporary pasture production. A soil test is the best means of determining the ratio and amount of fertilizer needed. General recommendations may be obtained from leaflets for specific type of farming areas. (Example, L-227, "Fertilizer Recommendations for the Rio Grande Plain.") When maximum grazing or early grazing is needed and moisture is adequate, use higher rates of fertilizer. Topdress with nitrogen one or more times to stimulate growth as desired when moisture and temperature are favorable.

All small grain seed should be treated with the proper amount and kind of seed fungicide to insure germination and good stands. Legume seed should be inoculated with the proper culture immediately before planting. Use high quality seed.

Small grains should be planted at the proper time to provide grazing as early as possible, even though this may require dusting them in. Some risk is involved with this practice, especially with wheat and rye, and it may increase insects and diseases. If dusted in, these small grains should be planted deep enough to prevent germination with light rains. Legume inoculant may be killed if the seed remains in dry soil for a long period.

Sod seeding of small grains in Bermuda grass is suggested only in areas of high rainfall where the amount of cultivated land available does not allow planting enough winter temporary pasture or in fields where seedbeds may be too wet to graze for long periods. Sod-seeded small grains produce less grazing than those seeded on a prepared seedbed. Sod seedings should be made in November, or after the summer grass is dormant, because of competition from established summer grass for moisture and plant nutrients kept grazed closely or clipped when it is time for the warm-season grass to begin growth to prevent damage to summer plants.

The recommendations are based primarily on the use of these plants for grazing. Small-grain varieties and dates and rates of seeding are not necessarily the same as for grain production.

Small grain varieties are listed in the order of expected earliness of grazing and not according to expected total production. When two or more varieties have the same degree of earliness, they should be used in the order listed, provided seed supply and cost are not a factor. Rye gives early grazing but is less palatable than oats, barley or wheat. Under most conditions barley should not be planted on soils likely to become waterlogged. Wheat normally does not produce as much early grazing as oats or barley, but may produce as much total forage for the season.

Varities for the sandy soils - Elbon Rye is well adapted to the lighter sandy soils. Up to 80 pounds of seed per acre are necessary for maximum forage.

Some stockmen may plant a mixture of Elbon Rye and Vetch for a better variety of forage. Under good moisture conditions, 40 lbs. of Vetch seed are planted with the above seed of Elbon Rye.

Oats "Moregrain" variety of oats withstood the leaf diseases last year.

Taggart Oats is a new variety developed from a cross of Fulghum and Bond. Taggart has an upright seedling growth, with strong straw and plump grain of high test weight. They are susceptible to leaf and stem rust, but resistant to helminthosporium blight. Taggart is classified as a semi-winter hardy type, however, they will withstand as much cold temperature as new mork or other similar varieties. Highly recommended for livestock producers who need early grazing, with a satisfactory yield of good quality grain, according to Olen Tippit, small grain authority with the McGregor Milling and Grain Company. Mr. Tippit reports their supply of seed is good but will run short before the season is over.

Kaw variety of wheat was planted in this area last year for grain and was heavily infested with leaf diseases. Kaw yields a good grain crop and the seed are available. Additional information on small grain varieties is available at the County Extension office.

Source of seed will be a major problem this fall.

An Eight-Year High . . .

Figures from Alcoa show an eight-year high in employment and payroll at the Rockdale Works.

One hundred and thirty-two Camerones are employed among the 1400 working either at the aluminum plant or its power-producing Industrial Generating contractor.

Cameron, therefore, has the second greatest number of Alcoa employees, following Rockdale's 378. And Milam County, including Cameron, but not Rockdale, has 307 Alcoans, almost the number residing in our sister city.

This is truly a county and area-wide industry, which has a $10.5 million annual payroll. Employment ranges as far away as Austin, LaGrange, Temple, Bryan and Bremond.

Benefits of this wide a distribution of income can be appreciated when you consider that $1 spent in a community or an area turns as often as three or four times.

This has been the stabilizing force for Milam County and even many of its otherwise purely rural communities. Thorndale has 91 residents employed at Alcoa, Milam 40, Gause 22, Buckholts 10, Davilla 6, Ben Arnold 3 and one each at Burlington, Maysfield and Minerva.

Without that payroll income, several of those communities would not have had staying power to improve a school or, in several cases, establish new water systems.

Such good fortune for this area certainly is noteworthy upon announcement of the eight-year high.

'Taste' At The Cinema . . .

We are compelled to comment on the contrast of two movie ads, one stacked upon the other, in a recent copy of a Houston daily.

One was a recitation of rave notices from various critics about "Lord Jim" an heroic film epic of the Conrad novel, outstanding in its filming and Peter O'Toole's title role.

The other, by chance set up beneath the former, was all about "Elvis", standing astride the title of his latest film "Tickle Me".

Beset by conscience, O'Toole is believably unbelievable as the astonishing hero whose quest for honor abruptly ends an astonishing picture. We saw that one.

Now "Tickle Me" is some mish-mash about Elvis at a girls dude ranch. We missed that one.

Perhaps after 15 years of TV and 10 years of Elvis (less a couple for Army duty) and a couple of years of the Beatles, Hollywood or London or Rome, whichever, finally decided O'Toole's hero would be accepted. Perhaps cinema had to find some denominator above the subteen age and the belt-line.

The contrast in taste, and talent, is so great that, once baring the fact this movie has popular appeal and presence, we shall say no more.

Carr Argues For Poll Tax

ATLANTA — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr came up with some interesting arguments in answer to the Federal suit which attacks the Texas poll tax.

Suit filed by the U. S. Justice Department seeks to get the poll tax ruled invalid as a requirement for voting. Contention is that the poll tax discriminates against Negroes.

That isn't so, Carr argued Friday in a pre-trial hearing before U. S. District Judge Adrian Spears. Carr claimed that a survey this spring by the Southern Regional Council showed that 57.7 per cent of the Negroes in Texas eligible to vote paid poll taxes and registered to vote, but only 53.2 per cent of the Caucasians registered in that fashion.

Carr also contended that the $1.50 State poll tax, levied in 1837 as a "head" tax, was tied to the right to vote in 1902 not to keep Negroes from voting, but to assure collection of the head tax. He added that revenue from the present $1.75 poll tax goes to the Available School Fund of the state, amounting to more than $2,000,000 last year.

The Federal suit citation — which centers on an all-white Austin precinct — was filed under the new federal voting rights act. Carr noted that the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights in 1961 found no discriminatory disenfranchisement.

Poll tax procedure is the only form of voter registration in Texas. So, a Federal court invalidation of the poll tax would mean a special session of the Legislature for the purpose of enacting a new voter registration law.

Carr also asked the court to order U. S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach to clarify whether his suit is aimed at striking down requirements that only property owners may vote in bond elections.

ROBERT LEE DAM—First action of the new State Water Rights Commission was to solve a long-pending problem. It approved the Colorado River Municipal Water District's application to locate its next dam at Robert Lee in Coke County, instead of the earlier authorized site in Mitchell County.

Proposed dam will boost the water supply of Big Spring, Odessa, Snyder, Midland and other areas of West Texas.

Reservoir on the Colorado River will have a 489,000 acre-foot capacity with 40,000 acre feet of water annually diverted for municipal use, 8,000 acre feet for oil well flooding and 2,000 acre feet for industrial plants.

Commission specified that use must come first from existing Lake J. B. Thomas and total diversion from new dam and Lake J. B. Thomas will be limited to 73,000 acre feet a year.

LCRA General Manager Sim Gideon praised the commission's order and said the compromise would effect better use of Colorado River water.

Commission also authorized construction of a system of low-flow diversion works in the Colorado River channel in Scurry and Mitchell Counties as a salt water pollution control measure and to divert waters for industrial and mining purposes.

COLLEGE SUPER-BOARD—Gov. John Connally appointed the 18 members of the new Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System and handed it the expected assignment to make Texas higher education second to none.

John Gray of Beaumont, who served on the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School which recommended the "Super-Board," was named chairman.

Other new Coordinating Board members who served on that study committee are Dr. D. M. Wiggins, Lubbock; H. B. Zachry, San Antonio; Tom Sealy, Midland; and M. Harvey Weil, Corpus Christi.

Coordinating Board appointees who have been on the Texas Commission on Higher Education are Dr. Joaquin Cigarroa, Laredo; J. C. Looney, Edinburg; Dan Williams, Wichita Falls.

New to an all-school board are Newton Gresham, Houston, vice chairman; Sam Rayburn Bell, Paris; Dr. J. J. Seabrook, Austin; Dr. G. V. Brindley, Temple; D. G. Soruggs, Mills County; Mrs. John T. Jones, Houston; Harry Province, Waco; Victor Brooks, Austin; and Eugene McDermott, Dallas.

APPOINTMENTS—Another long list of appointments, or reappointments, has been announced by Gov. Connally. They include:

To Governor's Committee on Aging — Rev. W. S. Brent, Dallas; O. J. Clements, Huntsville; Mrs. Leland R. Croft, Odessa; S. R. Greenwood, Temple; Allen Hastings, Beaumont; Myles MacDonald, Houston; Mrs. William B. Ruggles, Dallas; Dr. Dan Russell, Texas A&M University; Dewey Presley, Dallas; C. V. (Buster) Kern, Houston; Dr. George Killinger, Huntsville; and Rufe Jordan, Pampa (Gray County sheriff).

To Texas Tourist Development Agency — Robert H. Burck of Dallas; Gene L. Cagle of Fort Worth; and Chris Fox of El Paso. John McCarty of Dallas will serve as president of the agency advisory board, replacing James M. Gaines of San Antonio.

On Telephones For A Peculiar Reason

Dear editor:

The thing about progress is that you've got to know how to handle it, or it's more trouble than it's worth.

Take the telephone. It's all right if you need to call somebody, but it frequently becomes a nuisance when somebody wants to call you. I have observed that when I'm gone and somebody calls and leaves a message to call him, saying it's important, it's generally important to him, not to me.

This is going to be changed soon, although I don't think the telephone company intends it that way.

As I understand it, they've perfected a system where you can transfer your own calls, so in a sense your phone follows you around wherever you are. Say you're expecting a big business deal by telephone and you have to leave your office temporarily. All you do is dial a code number, then dial the number of the phone where you'll be while you're out, and if a call comes in it'll by-pass your office and ring at the other number.

Now the phone company figures this will be a great service and I'm sure it will, but it has other possibilities the company may not be aware of.

Say you're sitting down to watch a western and don't want to be interrupted. Just dial the code number, pick out somebody else's number, instruct your phone to switch to there, and let his phone ring instead of yours.

A teen-ager staying on your phone too much? Just switch your calls to the school superintendent's number and relax.

If a man is alert enough, he can always salvage something useful out of nearly any kind of progress, excepting bumper-to-bumper traffic.

Speaking of progress, the latest 8-day trip of the astronauts proves that man can survive in space, and right now another group of men are living in a capsule on the bottom of the ocean to see if man can survive under water.

I predict he can, and then the only test left will be to see if he can survive on earth.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Keeping Matches Dry

"A wet match is an abomination to both smoker and camp cook," so sayeth The Sportsman's Bible.

You can keep matches dry by daubing the heads with clear fingernail polish. This is much easier than dipping them in paraffin. Fingernail polish waterproofs the matches even under trying conditions—and the polish adds to their combustibility.

Milano Man Starts

AlcoaApprenticeship

Bryan Lee Graham of Milano has joined the apprentice training program at Alcoa's Rockdale Works. Graham will spend about four years in on-the-job training and classroom instruction in pursuit of a journeyman millwright classification.

His on-the-job training will include repair and installation of equipment, preventive maintenance, layout and fabrication, and operation of heavy construction equipment, as well as rigging and a variety of other tasks related to millwright work. The class work will cover more than 50 courses specifically designed for training millwrights. These include areas of math, blueprint reading, mechanics, benchwork, chemistry, welding and safety.

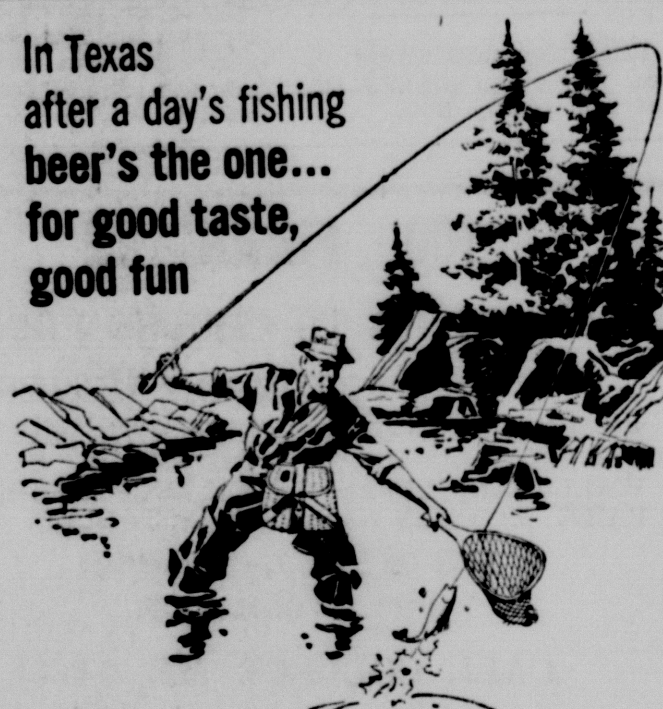

Graham graduated from Yoe High School in 1957 and studied for two years at Abilene Christian College. He worked in Cameron, spent time in the Army, and joined Alcoa at Rockdale early this year as a Production Helper in the Anode Department. Recently he transferred to the Mechanical Maintenance Department as a millwright apprentice.

Thermometers Aid Fishing
A smart fly fisherman adopts any method that promises to improve his chances for success. One wrinkle is the use of a thermometer to register water temperature.

For instance, in water 5 degrees and warmer, use lightly submerged nymphs and flies.

If the water is 45 to 55 degrees, use weighted nymphs and wets with streamers.

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH THIS WEEK

Millions Leave Them There!

"...RENEW A RIGHT SPIRIT WITHIN ME"

"I wonder what there is about an automobile that transforms many an operator from a Dr. Jekyll into a Mr. Hyde? Within another hour, when all the workers leave that factory, the drivers will get into their cars and many will change abruptly from kind, considerate, courteous people into intolerant, inconsiderate demons. They will be crowding, speeding and disregarding all safety rules and precautions. And all just to save a few minutes in getting away from the parking lot and arriving home."

"What can be done to remedy the situation? I believe I received the answer while attending church recently. If each of those drivers were to memorize, "... Renew a right spirit within me," or write it out and paste it over the ignition of the car, then repeat several times before starting the engine, he would arrive home just about as soon and in a peaceful frame of mind. There are many pointers on living a joyful life to be gained by attending whatever church suits one best, for that is the business of the Church—to teach the science of living harmoniously with one another and with God."

Human Hand As A Ruler

How many times have you been in a situation where a ruler was needed, and none was handy?

Well, you'll never be in that fix again if you'll remember the distance between the tip of your little finger to the tip of your thumb. Span your hand on a ruler, by placing the tip of the little finger on 0, and the thumb tip on whatever numeral in inches you can reach.

Early spurs, dating back to Roman times, were made of wood or bone.

Retouching Duck Decoys

When you touch up the worn paint spots on your decoys, be careful what sort of paint you use.

Flat paint is best, as it has no shine to scare away incoming flights. Use turpentine as thinner since linseed oil will tend to add shine.

After the paint dries, give the surface a few flicks with fine steel wool to dull the paint even more.
